New Gowns For Pretty Ohio Girl

Gowns of the very latest design
will be provided for the Ohio
Princess who will represent her state at the International Petroleum Exposition at Tulsa, Okla., management of the Deisel Co. announced Friday.

This store, one of the city's leading establishments, will supply articles of apparel for the young woman who will be chosen in the contest being held by The Lima News. A buyer from this store leaves for New York Sunday and while there will comb the markets for suitable articles, R.
E. Dunn, manager of the Deisel
Co., said.

In addition to the gowns she will be provided with in order
that she may appear at her best in the big contest, shoes, hosiery,
lingerie and other articles will be supplied by the Deisel Co.

Interest is growing each day in the contest as the closing day
draws near. Already the Contest Editor has more photographs than
it was anticipated would be entered and they continue to come in.
The judges will have no easy matter in selecting the beauty.

The contest closes Sept. 18, at midnight. Photos received after that date cannot be considered.

In this contest, all that is necessary is for a photograph to be submitted. Any girl in Ohio between the ages of 18 and 28 is eligible to enter. There are no other requirements; there is no
voting and no distasteful features.
It is a highly dignified undertaking in which there is no monetary consideration and no circulation
building. The Lima News is metely co-operating with leading newspapers in other states in choosing girls to represent their states at the exposition.

In case a young woman does not have a photograph suitable for entry in the contest, the staff
photographer of The Lima News
will call and make a picture free of charge. All that's necessary is to inform the Contest Editor.

MT. VICTORY MEN HELD GUILTY

Dr. J. J. Boone, One of Defendants, Missing At Sentencing

Verdicts of guilty were returned in Toledo federal court Friday
against three residents of Mount Victory, accused of operating a
"dope ring."

Dr. J. J. Boone and Earl Tapp
were found guilty of conspiring
to violate the narcotic law and
Dr. Oscar Pettiford was found guilty of improperly keeping his narcotic records.

Calvin C. Trapkey, a fourth defendant in the case, pleaded guilty,
turned state's evidence and has already served 184 days in jail.

Judge Killits immediately sentenced Dr. Pettiford to 15 months in Atlanta Federal prison. He said he would not sentence Tapp
until later and released him on bond.

The jury reached its verdict
Thursday night after only a few minutes' deliberation but was not allowed to report due to the absence of Dr. Boone.

It was learned that he had been seen Thursday in Bowling Green
at about 7 p. m. J. A. Yeager,
his attorney, told the court that
Dr. Boone arrived in Toledo Friday at 7:30 a. m., placed his auto
in the auto park and had not been seen since.

Judge Killits then ordered Boone's $10,000 bond forfeited
and a capias was issued for his arrest.

Judge Killits announced that he had sentenced Trapkey to one hour in the custody of the marshal
in connection with his plea of guilty to a charge similar to that against Pettiford, and that the sentence had been served.

B.&O. GOES ON SIX-DAY WEEK HERE

Need For Grain Cars Causes
Demand On Shops

700 MEN ARE AFFECTED

Nickel Plate Merger Expected
To Aid Plant Here

Lima is just beginning to reap
the benefit of the increasing prosperity of the railroads of the United States.

This was revealed Friday in the announcement that this week
the B. & O. railroad shops here
will operate on a six-day basis
instead of the five day a week
schedule placed in force last April.

This order affects approximately 700 men and will provide each one of them with an extra day's pay each week. It has been the company's policy to hold practically the full force on the job
and cut the hours of work rather than the number of workers.

Need for grain cars to carry the large amounts of grain seeking markets is responsible for the immediate increase in employment. Several hundred of these cars must be conditioned at once,
it is said.

As soon as this work is completed it is expected that the demand for other cars will be such
that an extensive repair program will be outlined that will keep the plant busy through the winter.

MANY WORKING

At the Nickel Plate shops approximately 400 men are now employed on a five-day week
schedule. Increased operation will probably be held up until the merger plans are completely carried out and it is known just how much work will be necessary.

Some of the lines involved are noted for the excellence of their equipment while others are believed to have a large number of cars in need of immediate repair.

As Lima is a junction point for the old L. E. & W. and the Erie, it is expected that work from both
lines will be centered here.

Those familiar with the situation on the various roads believe that it will not be long until the Nickel Plate shops will be operating on the full six-day week.

Receipt of the order for 25 locomotives by the Lima Locomotive Works has served to place
the industrial situation here on a firm footing, leaders point out.

Almost over night conditions
have been changed and all lines
of business are confident that the turn for the better has come for Lima and that the fall and winter will be a busy one.

FURNITURE MAN IS INJURED

J. W. Rowlands Hurt In Auto
Accident On Dixie

J. W. Rowlands, head of the J.
W. Rowlands Co., furniture dealers, was injured in an automobile accident Thursday evening in the Dixie highway south of Cridersville. His son Walter Rowlands was driving at the time.

The accident occurred when an approaching automobile blew a tire and swerved across the road.
The father was thrown out of the auto into the roadway by the impact.

Examination by physicians
showed bruises and slight injury to the back. It is believed that he will be able to be up and around within a week.

Rowlands has been living in California and was to leave for there Friday morning. The injury will force him to postpone
his trip until later in the month.

GREAT MILITARY CAREER BROUGHT TO CLOSE BY GENERAL PERSHING

"Black Jack" Retires at Midnight Tonight as Head
Of the American Army In Obedience to Rules
Of War Department

WASHINGTON — (By United Press) — General John J. Pershing locks up his desk in the War Department tonight, after the Defense Test returns are in, and officially ends the greatest career in American military history for several generations. The general retires at midnight tonight.

Sixty-four years old, today upstanding and apparently in the prime of life, ineptable army regulations which fix
that age as the end of a man's active usefulness have crowded
him into retirement.

"He'll leave a mighty big hole
around here when he goes," said
the old non-com at the War Department.

When Pershing looks at you
out of his steady blue eyes you just naturally straighten-up. Personality plus a leader whom men follow instinctively. There is tremendous fire and vigor in the man. He radiates will-power.
His self-possession and poise are contagious.

INTERESTED IN MEN
"Black Jack" is interested in men rather than ideas. Coupled with this interest in people is a native instinct for ordering their lives, for governing. Order is a passion with him. Wherever he has gone, what over he has done,
he has gravitated to the tasks of organization. In his early days
as military instructor at the University of Nebraska, again in the Cuban campaign, as a provincial governor in the Philippines, in France, even in the post-war period—always he has stood out as a great administrator, one who brings order out of chaos.

Many men can tell others what to do. But Pershing can make them do it. The explanation? His rare combination of personal mastery and charm!

WAS NOT A PRODIGY
There are more brilliant officers in the Army. He was no prodigy at West Point. In academic learning he is surpassed by others. As a tactician he does not rank with the great generals of history or with Foch, the French leader. Nor is he exceptionally daring. He has never done foolhardy stunts to convince others of his bravery.

Flashiness is alien to his nature.
Fifteen years elapsed before he advanced from second lieutenant to captain. Then he vaulted seniority rules and jumped over his superior officers into the rank of brigadier general. As long as it was a question of routine service, Pershing was capable without the windowfront of superficial brilliance that secures advancement. But in each crisis he rose as a natural leader.

Discipline is the first word in his vocabulary.

STUDENT POLICE APPOINTED

Traffic Safety Program Is Aim
At Schools

Safety in school zones for the 7,000 students enrolled in public schools has been assured by the creation of a juvenile police corps
of students by City Manager C. A.
Bingham and Superintendent R.
E. Offenhausen.

While the student police will not be invested with complete police powers in regulation of traffic
for elimination of automobile accidents, as such procedure is unlawful, they have been designated for duty with instructions to obtain the license tag numbers of autoists who disregard school
safety laws.

All violations will be reported to police headquarters and arrests
are to follow in the city and school officials' efforts to protect students from the recklessness of motorists.

Each juvenile traffic officer at the 15 public schools in the city will wear a white arm insignia to designate him as one invested with the authority to stop motorists and regulate traffic during the hours when students are enroute to and from school.

Streets with several hundred feet of school houses have been marked with "caution, school zone" signs by police. Juvenile traffic officers will be on duty at these signs and at all intersections near schools, according to the plan outlined here, and which plan has met with success in other cities.

THOUSANDS OF YANKEES ANSWER CALL TO ARMS

Object Of Mobilization Is Try-

SPEED IMPORTANT FACTOR

Parades And Reviews Held
Thruout The Land

CHICAGO — (By Associated Press) — Defense Day was un-
dered into the middle west today
by parades and reviews in which hundreds of thousands of national guardsmen participated, and by patriotic rallies, parades and mass meetings were declared in a number of states and in hundreds of towns and cities. The major demonstrations, however,
are scheduled for the evening in most localities.

Major General Harry C. Hale,
commander of the sixth army
corps area, United States army,
in a message sent today to employees of all industrial establishments within the area, said:
"Our nation loves peace and hates war. We want no more of it; but nevertheless, wars do come. This country has experienced a war each generation
since its birth and I have to admit that our success in these wars have not been due to preparedness, but rather to favorable circumstances."

"Congress in 1920 passed the national defense act." It is the first law that thoroughly considers our problem of national defense
and for the first time in history
a plan was laid down and the war department authorized to prepare a national defense policy."

Two sham battles were fought today at Yankton, S. D., and at Evansville, Ind., at Jeffersonville, Ind., $75,000,000 worth of army supplies were publicly exhibited and several thousands of Indians near Winner, S. D., participated in a patriotic "pow day."

WAR MEMORIAL
The American Legion of Indiana laid the cornerstone of the new $10,000,000 Indiana World War Memorial at Indianapolis.
The cornerstone laying climaxed
a city-wide celebration.

Draft boards were reorganized
in many localities and hundreds of "one day only" recruits were enlisted. The thirteenth addition, composed of Ohio militiamen, was called out and inspected, altho no executive order was issued in the state.

A bugler at Chicago blowing
"Reveille" into a microphone
of a local radio casting station,
announced the arrival of "Defense Day" to hundreds of listeners in and out of the city. Buglers stationed in various parts of the city blew similar calls at sunrise.

In Wisconsin despite the order of Governor J. J. Blaine that national guard commanders would be deprived of their commissions
if they called out their units, the day was observed with patriotic rallies and mass meetings in 21-
most every city.

In Kentucky, Governor Fields
called upon citizens there to assemble at county seats to "learn
more about your national guard."

OHIOANS JOIN COLUMBUS — (By United

game of war, Ohio joined with the nation today and called on its military strength to mobilize to defend America against a make-

Adjutant General Frank Henderson estimated more than a million Ohioans were participating in the demonstration of the state's military strength.

Every national guard troop and reserve organizations and thousands of civilians answered the call to arms. In every city and hamlet throughout the land citizens
were responding to the simulated
call for volunteers.

Speed was the all-important factor, a test of the speed with which the nation can assemble its manpower for war.

generals sat around a table scan-

MABEL NAMED IN DIVORCE SUIT

Screen Star Is Linked With

Husband Visited By Actress,
Wife Charges

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — (By United Press) — Studio town was buzzing today with a new morsel
of gossip. There's a sensational divorce complaint on file in the county clerk's office down town
and Mabel Normand is named in it.

Mabel, hte film comedienne?
Well, it doesn't definitely say,
but Hollywood is talking just the same.

Mrs. Georgia Church, society
matron, filed the action, setting forth that Norman Church, her millionaire husband, boasted to her
of "night gown visits" to Mabel Normand paid him while the two of them were patients in an exclusive hospital during the same month in 1923.

And Mabel, the actress, has been in that hospital at various times. That much is certain.

FLOWERS SENT
Church, his wife alleges, said
Miss Normand often trotted
across the hall in negligee from her room into his to drink with him. She sent him flowers, to which were attached sweet little notes, and threatened "to tell him
naughty stories if he didn't keep still" at times when he grew petulant, and exacting.

Their friendship ended, Church
admitted, when Mabel, recovering
sooner than he did, donned her clothes one day to go home and came in and kissed him a sweet goodbye.

Of all these intimacies, Mrs.
Church declares, her husband
boasted when he returned home,
declaring that Miss Normand was a mighty fine little girl.

In Kentucky, Governor Fields
called upon citizens there to assemble at county seats to "learn
more about your national guard."

his vocabulary. Training is the second. Preparedness rather than cleverness is his method. Pershing's unusual achievement consists in being a severe disciplinarian and at the same time popular. The stickler for discipline, only once in his varied career has this severity cost him the affection of those under him. That was as an instructor at West Point. Even then the students respected his ability.

ALWAYS A LEADER

From the beginning he has been a leader. As a boy in a frontier town, he led. As a student at West Point he was chosen ranking officer and class president even tho his academic rank was only fair. His sophisticated eastern classmates at the military academy followed the Missouri youth with the straight figure and dogged jaw.

Pershing's pioneer stock and early hardships explain his self-mastery, the key to his mastery over others. He was born on the Missouri frontier, a region of strife between abolitionists and slaveholders even before the Civil war. A shanty was the first home provided by his father, a section boss on the new railroad. After the panic of '73, John at 13 had to continue a man's work on the farm with attendance at school.

TEACHING SCHOOL

Soon he was teaching school. First it was negro children, then the "regular" school at Prairie Mound, near his LaCade home. Meanwhile he sandwiched in courses at the state normal school. This thirst for education rather than the glamor of soldier life led him at 22 to take the local examination for West Point. He beat his competitor by one point. Even at the military academy it was the general cultural advantages that attracted him. Half way thru West Point he was planning to start an immigration project in Oregon after his graduation.

Five years of Indian fighting as a cavalry lieutenant on the Mexican border and in the north west satisfied his love of adventure and outdoor life, but only intensified his desire for education. He landed an appointment as military instructor at the University of Nebraska. There he took a law course and upon graduation was admitted to the state bar.

At Lincoln he formed friendships which later helped him in his rapid rise. He found the students and faculty pacifists and indifferent to military training. When he left his student corps ranked next to West Point in efficiency. With this record and social charm developed in Lincoln, he made a favorable impression upon General Miles, chief of the Indian post at Mott. After his year at Mott, Miles gave him

Pershing Quotes:

Lafayette we are here. Look after the privates. While I am in command, I am going to command.

Patriotism is not a garment that you put on today and take off tomorrow.

The trained soldier makes the most valuable citizen. The draft act did not go far enough. Provision should have been made for mobilizing all industries and all labor.

Unless some such move be made (to limit armaments), we may well ask ourselves whether civilization does really reach a point where it begins to destroy itself, and whether we are thus doomed to go headlong down through dark ages and barbarism.

(In Flanders Fields) And now, Dear Comrades, Farewell. Here, under the clear skies, on the green hillsides and mild the flowering fields of France, in the quiet hush of peace, we leave you forever in God's keeping.

The coveted appointment to the West Point faculty.

"Black Jack," the students named him because he was such a stern disciplinarian. First they called him "Nigger Jack" — his original outfit, the 10th Cavalry, was a negro regiment.

He was trying to get into the Judge Advocate General's corps where he could make use of his law training, when the Spanish-American war broke. Then he asked to be made colonel of Nebraska Volunteers, but he was not so lucky as William Jennings Bryan who landed such a job. He went to Cuba as a quartermaster.

He helped the 10th Cavalry save Roosevelt's Rough Riders at Las Guasimas. General Wood recommended his advancement to the Staff Corps for "gallantry and efficiency" in action. As one of thousands of malarial victims due to inadequate sanitary provisions and mismanagement and graft in the supply service, "J. P." became an advocate of preparedness for the next war.

IN PHILIPPINES

After a few months as a desk officer at the War Department following the Cuban experience, he got himself transferred to active service again on "cleanup work" in the Philippines. He went to the islands relatively unknown. Three and a half years later he returned as one of the most famous officers in the Army. With a combined policy of consultation and force he had subdued a Moro revolt, learned some of the native language, made friends of the chiefs who consecrated him a "dato" or sultan and established a reputation as a colonial administrator. Captain Pershing's name was now in all the newspapers. Generals, including Wood, joined with statesmen in recommending his promotion to brigadier general. Roosevelt had him dine at the White House, and mentioned him by name in the presidential message to Congress as deserving brigadier rank despite seniority rules.

PERSHING MARINES

On the wave of this popularity Pershing met and married the daughter of the wealthy Senator Warren of Wyoming, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs. The wedding was attended by the President, Cabinet, Army and Navy officers, and the Diplomatic Corps.

He and his bride left immediately for his new post as military observer at Tokio. The Russo-Jap war was on. He was an observer with the Japanese army thruout the Manchurian campaign.

Roosevelt promoted him from captain to brigadier general when he returned to Tokio. The Wood, Bell, Crozier and others had been jumped over their seniors in similar manner. The howling went up that Pershing had "pulled" thru his father-in-law. Since then the unwarranted price Pershing has had to pay for rapid advancement and popularity has been the charge of favoritism.

After crossing Siberia to Paris as observer for an expected Balkan war, he asked to return to the Philippines as Military Governor of the Moro Province. He remained there until December 1913, having accomplished complete disarmament of the natives and established a record as a colonial administrator which has never been surpassed by a military man.

THE GREAT TRAGEDY

Returning to the States he received command of the 8th Brigade, which began patrolling the Mexican border in January 1914. There sorrow met, and almost ruined him. His wife and children were about to join him in El Paso when they were caught in the Presidio fire in San Francisco. Only his small son escaped. Fellow officers feared he would go insane. Since then his jaw has been even more firmly set, and the mark of loneliness has never left the Commander.

The Punitive Expedition into Mexico to catch Villa "dead or alive" was welcomed by Pershing. For almost a year he commanded the American troops under every conceivable handicap. The Villistas were adepts at guerrilla warfare. Then the Mexican federal army attacked him. The American government and the Army organization back in the States failed to give adequate support in supplies and equipment. He did not capture Villa. But as a recognition of leadership under supreme difficulties he was made major general.

Three months after his return from Mexico he was on the Atlantic bound for France as Commander in-Chief of America's Expeditionary Forces, which were to number two million and a half.

THE GREAT ORGANIZER

Pershing is the great organizer produced by the World War. He was a general without an army. It had to be created, equipped, trained. Even his staff had to be produced out of land. No wonder the Allies thought the task impossible, that rather than attempt to build a separate American Army our soldiers should serve in scattered units as a part of the French and British armies under foreign commanders.

Pershing was doing with the king of England and receiving the ovations of Paris, but underneath was this conflict of ideas. The Allies under the pressure of battle were taking a short view. Pershing was looking ahead. He refused to be rushed. He told them they must hold the line another year—and cabled Washington he must have a million men within a year and munitions and supplies for three million. He established headquarters at Chaumont and began his long preparation for the Meuse-Argonne campaign.

"Black Jack" opposed the idea of a supreme war council and demanded a supreme commander. When Foch took over in April 1918 Pershing won two points. The American Army was recognized equally with the French and British with its individual command under Foch. Only July 4 the A. E. F. took over the Chateau-Thierry region, and in August the First American Army became responsible for the St. Mihiel sector.

HE MAKES GOOD

While the Allies accepted the war-position tactics and trench fighting, Pershing prepared for a war-of-movement. They relied on the hand-grenade, he trained his men with the rifle. The Allies hoped for a successful drive in the spring of 1919. He reported he was ready to risk the entire American forces in a quick and supreme drive to end the war before snow-fall. In the Argonne drive he made good his promise, cut the German line of retreat, and hastened the armistice.

CHARGES AGAINST CITY MANAGER DISMISSED

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio.—Charges against O. E. Carr, city manager of Dubuque, Iowa, and formerly manager of this city, of illegality participating in a municipal election at Dubuque, have been dismissed according to word received here today. The state law under which Carr was indicted, was held unconstitutional by the court.

SIMPLE home test has been found by which you can easily judge the quality and economy of "CHURNGOLD". It is a useful test. For instance, how do you know that you wouldn't like "CHURNGOLD" as well as the spread for bread that you are now using?

Here is the way you can tell. Use "CHURNGOLD" for a few days—use it on toast, or on any other kind of food that you would use a quality spread. You will find that the quality of "CHURNGOLD" is far superior to other spreads, and that it always stays fresh much longer and is always uniform in taste and flavor.

There is no purer, better spread for bread than "CHURNGOLD". If there could be, it would still be "CHURNGOLD".

DEFENSE DAY IS OBSERVED

Mass Meeting Friday Night At Memorial Hall

FLAGS DECORATE CITY

Guard Units To Mobilize In Armories Here Tonight

National Defense Day was ushered in Friday with flags flying from homes and stores in all parts of Lima.

Coupled with the celebration is the remembrance that six years ago, with a million men under arms in France, American forces led by Gen. John J. Pershing, crushed in the St. Mihiel salient and started the retreat of the German army that ended on Armistice day two months later.

John A. Harley, chairman of the committee in charge of the celebration, declared at an early hour that the response of the public had eclipsed all expectations.

UNITS MOBILIZE

Reserve officers in the city and vicinity on orders from headquarters of the Fifth Corps area, Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, reported in person to Col. Harley, ranking officer in this section, while others reported by wire.

The Army recruiting station at the court house was visited during the day by many veterans of the Regular army, both officers and soldiers, who reported that they were ready for duty.

If their services were needed.

National guard units in the city will mobilize in their various armories at 7 p. m. Friday. Official plans called for meeting in the morning, but were changed to evening to avoid calling men from work. No parade was held because of this.

Complete plans for mobilizing the 148th Infantry were received Friday by Lt. Col. Frank Hume. Plans worked out provide for mobilizing, drilling, housing and feeding troops in their home towns for one week, and moving to a central meeting point. The plans of course will not be carried into effect at this time.

Mass meeting at Memorial hall Friday night will be opened with prayer by Rev. Samuel Huecker, or some other local pastor.

Arrangements have been made thru the Radio Shop for receiving the speeches of Secretary of War John W. Weeks, General John J. Pershing and Brig. General J. J. Carth, at Memorial hall over the radio. The big set is being installed by M. B. West and W. E. Hansen, managers of the Radio Shop.

Thru cooperation of the Bell Telephone system enough stations will be linked to enable receiving sets in the most remote corners of the country to tune in.

Melvin Light, attorney, will be speaker of the evening, and will explain the object of the day. Eugene T. Lippincott will act as chairman of the meeting.

Y INDIAN CLUB TO MEET FRIDAY TO PLAN WORK

The Y Indian club will meet Friday night at the Y. M. C. A. and plans for the coming year will be discussed. A good program has been arranged and the members are urged to be present.

The Y Indian club is composed of older employed boys who desire to affiliate themselves with a group of fellows having as their desire the cultivation of a four-square life and in giving their best in service to the other fellow.

Officers of the club are president, Gardiner Gaberdiel; secretary, Harold Potter; treasurer, Merle Wade. It has been decided that the club will meet every week at the Y where the program will be carried out.

DEFENSE PLAN PUT TO TEST

nation be mobilized fully and quickly under the machinery perfected by the army since the world war?

2—Can a voluntary call produce the requisite number of soldiers for a first levy?

The defense test is primarily an attack on the problem of personal organization.

The immediate sequel of today's test will be revamping of the reserve army organization in those localities which fall today to recruit their units to full strength.

FIRST TEST

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — The nation's defense machinery, intended for actual use only in the event of a war emergency was given its first test today, accompanied by patriotic demonstrations in every part of the United States and its possessions.

It was a limited test, the actual expansion plans of the war department being designed to cover a period of months, but dealing only with the question of personnel and not with supply, equipment, housing or training, the progressive stages were consolidated into this one day.

The day's program called for a trial of the decentralized defense machinery set up since the national defense act of 1920 was substituted for the pre-war system.

Demonstration of the success of the new scheme of defense will signalize the separation of the military establishment from at least so far as active service is involved, of General John J. Pershing, who has devoted his time since 1919 to perfecting it.

When the Defense Day tests actually got under way today, it was apparent to war department officials, after studying reports from outlying commands that their hopes had been entirely satisfied by the response thru out the country of men who for the day had reported for "duty" to the corps area commanders and in the more local districts to the committees set up to function like the draft boards did during the war.

PEKIN IS UNDER MARTIAL LAW

60,000 Troops In Readiness To Repel Invasion

SHANGHAI FIGHT HALTED

Battle Suspended By Miry Condition Of Ground

PEKIN — (By United Press) — Pekin was placed under what amounted to martial law today by an order extending the powers of the Gendarmerie.

Sixty thousand troops were in readiness to repel an invasion from the north.

Chang Tso Lin is mobilizing his full forces and moving southward from Manchuria, explaining as he advanced that this is merely a customary "autumn maneuver."

The Pekin government headed by President Tsao Kuo, maintained by the alliance of Wu Pei Fu and Chi Hsieh Yuan, has announced its unalterable opposition to any intervention by the powers. It is willing to stand or fall on the strength of the present unification policy.

SHANGHAI

(By United Press) — The rival armies deadlocked before Shanghai, still were prevented by miry conditions under foot from renewing their conflict today. General Lu Yung Hsiang visited his front and made speeches to cheer up the troops.

SHANGHAI — (By Associated Press) — The Chekiang forces defending Shanghai, operating on the front west of this city have captured the town of Hsiao, compelling the Kiangsu army in that sector to fall back towards Chank Chow.

THREE SEWER CONTRACTS ARE APPROVED BY CITY

Contracts for installation of sewers on St. Johns-av. Erie-av. and Fifth-av. have been signed by Plock and Mulligan, contractors, and work is to be started next week as soon as all the material is received. City Manager C. A. Bingham announced.

Completion of the three jobs, along with those started months ago, will mark the end of the year's sewer work in Lima as officials are not to let any further contracts until next year.

AUTO ACCIDENT SUNDAY CULMINATES IN COURT

Joe Otto, 30, Lima, was arraigned in Justice E. M. Botkins' court Friday on charges of reckless driving brought by Mrs. Emanuel Parrott, of 903 N. Colorado.

He pleaded not guilty and was held under $50 bond to insure his appearance for trial on September 17.

Arrest of Otto, made by Deputy Sam Osburn, is the outgrowth of an auto accident Sunday at the intersection of the Blue Lick road and the Dixie highway.

TED ARRANGES WEATHER TRUCE

A dove of peace flew into Lima on Friday, National Defense day, and after a conference with military leaders in this county, he held a serious talk with Ted, the weather prognosticator, and arranged for more suitable weather for the future.

While the agreement Friday centered on showers and cooler weather for Friday night and fair and cooler weather on Saturday, Ted has assumed an optimistic air and belief is prevalent that some enjoyable weather is coming to Lima instead of the near winter temperature and disagreeable rains that have brought repeated complaints from residents who wish to enjoy motor trips and the baseball games scheduled on Sunday.

JUNK DEALER IN COURT ENTERS PLEA OF GUILTY

S. Collins, junk dealer, pleaded guilty Friday to receiving stolen brass, before Justice of Peace E. M. Botkins. He was arrested by Ford Cole, investigator for the Nickel Plate railway. Disposition of the case will be made later by the court. Ford Cole told the court that Collins has been buying metals from young boys.

MRS. IRENE HOFFMAN DIES AT HER HOME HERE

Mrs. Irene Hoffman, 41, wife of William Hoffman, of 322 Holmes-av., died early Friday morning at her home after a prolonged illness.

Besides the husband she leaves one son Robert and a daughter, Bernadine, both residing at home. Her mother, Mrs. Ellen Cumming, also survives.

No funeral arrangements have been made.

FARMER STUNG BY BEES WHILE WORKING IN FIELD

RUSHMORE — A Barnes, residing near here, suffered the sting of 18 bumble bees while plowing in his field.

The tractor he was using stirred up the nest as he was rounding the corner of a field. Before Barnes could stop the tractor and make his escape, he was attacked by the bees.

His face and hands are swollen to twice their normal size as a result of the poison of the stings.

NEW TEACHERS

OTTAWA — Miss Gertrude Reed has taken the Pierman school in Ottawa-tp. made vacant by the resignation of Miss Hazel Ruch, who is teaching in the west side school.

Miss Ruch took the place of Miss Helen Graham, whose marriage to Ralph Beams, of Continental, was an event of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Mason of Shawnee and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Randolph of Rich-av, left Thursday for Webster Lake, Ind., to attend a meeting of the Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky Railway Traffic Association.

CASE DISMISSAL IS SOUGHT

Mrs. Shama Pleads For Man Held On Mann Act

OTTAWA — Love for the 79-year-old mother of Fred Shama, merchant of Leipsic, by Mrs. Margaret Marshall-Shama in the nine years it is charged that her son lived with Mrs. Margaret Marshall-Shama as his common law wife, was assigned as the reason Thursday why Mrs. Marshall-Shama begged of George E. Reid, district attorney, to dismiss the case in federal court at Toledo.

Shama's case on an indictment charging violation of the Mann white slave act, returned by the federal grand jury last spring, was ready for trial.

Mrs. Shama arose and in the presence of the jury and prosecutor, asked the case be dismissed.

Shama recently appealed to higher court a penitentiary sentence given him in common pleas court here for abandonment of the children in which a jury fixed him as the legal father of two of the three children of Mrs. Shama.

HABEAS CORPUS ACTION IS THREATENED IN CASE

Collins, of Elm Center, seeking the return of Mildred Collins, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Collins, whom they will charge, is being detained against her will by her father.

Budd Harris, of Kalida. The child was removed by the father from the Elm Center school Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Collins allege.

The death of the girl's mother occurred soon after her birth. Mr. Collins, who was a sister to the child's mother, says that Harris gave her into her care and signed the privilege of her adoption to the Collins family.

According to the foster parents of the child, he now wants her back. He has re-married, it is said.

MAYOR COLLECTS $300 IN FINES DURING WEEK

DELPHOS — City treasury has been enriched this week by the collection of $300 in fines by Mayor George N. Leasure from five offenders convicted on various charges.

Nationally Advertised Watches, Diamonds Jewelry and Silverware at Lowest Prices and Easiest Credit Terms in City of Lima

The tremendous success that has been achieved by The Windsor Jewelry Company is based on its ability to offer reliable Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry and Silverware at the very lowest prices obtainable anywhere in this city. In offering them—to extend also the privilege of buying on easy payments.

The development of the installment system of buying is the outstanding feature of retail business of the past ten years. Today, wise people use their credit, just as big business men, municipal, state and federal governments, and big industries use their credit. Credit is the basis of all modern business.

Years ago, we realized this, and inaugurated our famous system of extended payments. No longer do wide awake ambitious folks save and save, until they can "Plunk Down Cash" for something that, when purchased will be used over a long period of time. They prefer to pay for their purchases as they use them. So, today, furniture, pianos, financial investments, real estate, clothing, jewelry and many of the other worth while things of life are purchased in this way.

It is a notable feature of The Windsor System, that it offers the highest quality diamonds, watches and jewelry at prices that are never higher than you would pay elsewhere (considering quality) for cash, and in most cases less. VEIL REMOVAL IS DEMANDED

Arab Women Launch Fight Against Isolation

MORE FREEDOM SOUGHT

Movement Is On For Emancipation In Palestine

JERUSALEM — (By Associated Press) — The stubborn conservatism of the Moslem women with regard to the social isolation of the women in Palestine may soon give way before the movement launched by Arab feminists for the removal of the veil. The Holy Land, backward in many respects, is behind such Moslem countries as Turkey and Egypt in breaking the shackles holding women in seclusion.

The movement for the emancipation of Moslem women in Palestine is of recent origin and is traceable to the influx of people from the west, especially Jewish immigrants coming to settle in their national home.

As the first step towards their emancipation the women demand abolition of the dark veil from their faces. If such living in the face of age-long custom does not win official approval, some of the leading Arab women of Palestine are determined to do what their Moslem sisters did in Turkey, where the veil has been entirely cast off or at least in Egypt, where only a light transparent veil is still worn extending from below the nose.

The ban on the public appearance of women has retarded the development of the Arab drama, and it is the hope of the feminists that the admittance of Moslem women to the theatrical stage will follow the removal of the veil.

Arab women of Palestine are keen not only on social emancipation but on participation in politics.

"Take us out of our insulating seclusion and remove from our faces the offensive black cloth, give us our opportunity as free members of a free people, granting us the right to fight with you for our national ideals," says in part an appeal appearing recently in an Arab language newspaper in

GERMAN STREET TRAFFIC CONGESTION IS SERIOUS

BERLIN — Street traffic in Berlin has increased to such an extent within the last few months chiefly due to the larger number automobiles now in use, that the city authorities have sent experts abroad to study the ways of handling traffic in other cities.

New York and other American cities will be visited by the traffic chiefs, as well as London and Paris. It is planned to establish a signal system of some kind at the most congested street intersections.

In Potsdamer Platz, Berlin's busiest corner, where five streets intersect, eight to ten policemen are engaged when traffic is at its height. At another busy corner, where Wilhelm street crosses Leipzig street in the shopping district, four policemen are on duty during most of the day.

BRISK BUSINESS IS FORECAST

Labor Union Sees Depression End In Near Future

CLEVELAND, O. — (By United Press) — Business is on the up-grade after a depression of three months, according to D. B. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, here, Robertson's barometer of business conditions is the shifting number of members in the brotherhood.

"When production falls off and industry slackens, our membership decreases, because there is less shipping and fewer train hauls and fewer firemen are needed," he said.

"During the last three months there has been a steady slackening of industry. In July our membership went down to 112,000. Business now is on the up-grade and in the last few weeks our membership has gone up to 117,000. I predict a further increase in the volume of business especially in the agricultural regions," he said.

And while on the subject of agriculture, Robertson took a crack at the present administration and drifted into a discussion of politics.

Commenting on the recent price increase in farm products, Robertson said "big business" put the prices up. It was purely political expediency to win farmer votes for the present administration," he declared.

"The methods whereby the prices were boosted prove the farmer could have been relieved months ago if 'big business' had so desired. The increase was a last resort to win votes."

CATCH BIG STURGEON
UPPER MARLBORO, Md. — The largest sturgeon it is believed, ever seen in these waters, has been caught by three men hauling Seine near Hill's Bridge on the Patuxent River. The fish was 11 feet long and weighed more than 300 pounds.

Costly Trajan Palace Houses Homeless Cats

Hundreds or homeless but well kept cats inhabit what was the imperial palace of the Emperor Trajan.

These cats are all on the municipal payroll just the same. For long centuries, the cats have been fed by a special municipal employee who does out the daily ration from a fund especially provided for the purpose.

For cats, living in such a feline community, they are well behaved. They never give any trouble to the neighborhood with nocturnal serenades or dirges. Their love-making is carried on rather orderly for beings of their erotic nature.

None of them have any blood. They come from any and all feline bloods.

The colors are as varied as the proverbial rainbow with a little black and white added for good measure.

Americans visit the Forum of Trajan more to see the cats than the remains of the great palaces, which that emperor constructed besides, being municipally fed, they are lavishly and generously pampered by bits of biscuit, cakes, etc., which the tourists might happen to have in their kits.

Have You Piles?
Then You Have Something to Learn
Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine.

Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause. Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt was first to find the remedy. His prescription, HEM-ROID, is now sold by all druggists. Dr. Leonhardt tried it in 1000 cases with the marvelous record of success in 98 per cent, and then decided it should be sold under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications. Get a package of HEM-ROID from Hunter's Drug Store today. It has given safe and lasting relief to thousands and should do the same for you—it seldom fails.

PRINCE REGENT DONATES FAMOUS ART TO MISSION

TOKIO — Reproductions of two famous paintings, familiar in millions of homes in the Orient, were presented to the prince regent of Christian Missions in Japan, most of whose members are Americans.

The pictures are "Waiting" and "The Last Supper." Below the "Sir Galahad" is a plate bearing Tennyson's lines, "My strength is as the strength of ten because my heart is pure." The inscription at the bottom of the other picture is, "The Good Shepherd with His Life for His Sheep."

this service is given by a comparison of the figures for the corresponding period of last year, when 149 planes crossed, carrying 585
passengers, 23,526 kilos of merchandise and 34 kilos of mail.

Not a single accident of any significance has occurred in the service this year.

About 75 per cent of the passengers carried are Americans. The Handley-Page bi-motor planes
make the trip in about three hours, but the Spads and most of the Farman in the French service
cut this time by about half an hour. American travelers like the service for several reasons—it is much faster than any train-boat
route, more comfortable, and not only affords an opportunity to fly
safely, but passes over a most picturesque country. The fare, 400 francs, is about the same as the first-class rate by train and boat.
The service is efficient; company cars pick up passengers at their hotels in time for departure and upon arrival cars take passengers
to their hotels. The only drawback is that trunks cannot be carried, but hand luggage, such as suitcases go with the passengers.
The larger planes, with nicely up-

holstered compartments closed in have all conveniences.
WILL MEN PAY
Both the French and British channel services are subsidized by their governments, but commercial flying is developing so rapidly and meeting with such popular support that officials expect that within another season or two the services will be able to pay expenses and operate on their own.
An official of the Handley-Page
Co. said the chief difficulty now
is to get the money for a new and larger fleet of planes. When this becomes possible he said the service will show a margin of profit.
He predicts that within a few years practically all travel between London and Paris will be
by airplane particularly during the summer months. Fogs and rain of winter destroy much of the charm of the flights, but the pilots are so expert that they manage to make the trips in almost any weather. The companies hope to build up the merchantist transportation so that the winter service will bring in more proceeds.

LAFOLLETTE HIT BY DAWES

Attacked By Nominee In Speech At Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE — (By Associated Press) — Republican organization leaders in Wisconsin took steps today to carry on the fight launched against LaFollette's independent candidacy last night by Charles G. Dawes, Republican vice presidential nominee, in an address in the Milwaukee Auditorium.

Plans for the contest in Senator LaFollette's progressive home state were discussed informally between local party leaders and William M. Butler, Republican national chairman, after last night's meeting which was attended by an audience that overflowed the auditorium. The hall has a seating capacity of 3,500.

Republican national committee officials who accompanied Dawes here were afforded obvious indications of the strong political feeling that exists this year in Wisconsin.

Dawes devoted his entire address to a discussion of the LaFollette movement which he declared represented "the quintessence of demagoguery, animated by the vicious purpose of undermining the constitutional foundations of this republic." He described the senator's Labor Day address as an affront to the common sense of the average individual, and declared the success of the LaFollette doctrine of congressional veto of supreme court decisions "would mean that the constitution be stripped of authority, would be disastrous, and government would become the plaything of changing political parties with demagogues in the saddle."

ALLISON NAMED AS SPEAKERS' BUREAU HEAD

COLUMBUS — Thomas E. Dye, Urbana, Democratic executive committee chairman, left here last night for Washington for a conference with Clegg Shaver, national committee chairman. Dye was accompanied by John Wood, Goretown, campaign committee treasurer. Before his departure Dye announced the appointment of Ray Allison as chairman of the Democratic speakers' bureau. Governor Al Smith of New York, Senator Harrison of Mississippi and William J. Bryan are among the prominent Democrats who will be brought into Ohio for campaign speeches.

CHERRIES CHEAP — The fruit has been for sale on became so littered with cherry pits that there was complaint, and the police installed receptacles.

PASTOR DENIES GIRL'S CHARGE

Kentucky Minister Accused Of Attacking Choir Singer

DEFENDANT CLAIMS ALIBI

Testifies In Own Behalf At Trial In Newport

NEWPORT, Ky. — (By Associated Press) — Rev. William F. Gregory, pastor of Grace M. E. church, this city, who is on trial here on the charge of having attacked Miss Anabel Fisher, 20, former choir singer and treasurer of the Epworth League of his church, denied the charge of Miss Fisher on the witness stand yesterday. He declared that on the night of January 17, when the alleged attack is said to have been made, he delivered an address in Junior Order Hall. Rev. Gregory testified that he arrived at the hall shortly after 7 o'clock and remained until about 9:30. Then, he said, he went down stairs to the office of Rev. Cloe. He testified that he was in the office for "Cloe" until about 11 o'clock but he did not come.

Asked what was the conduct of the girl after January 17, Gregory replied "she never missed church nor choir nor a Wednesday night meeting since that time until about August 26."

Rev. Gregory followed Miss Fisher on the witness stand. Miss Fisher testified that the pastor attacked her while she was in his study attending to Epworth League monthly reports.

The first time I said anything about the attack was on August 13," she said. "Then I told the young man to whom I was engaged, Richard W. Nothkin. I thought it was my duty to tell him. I told my parents on August 19."

HURLED TO DEATH IN

LORAIN — Michael Schaffer, 26, is dead from a fractured skull, suffered when a scaffold in the blast furnace of the National Tube Co. gave way and hurled five men 30 feet to the ground.

John Tomcik, 45, sustained a broken leg.

Eugene Sanders, 20, was bruised and lacerated.

Robert Fisher, 22, received a broken leg.

H. C. Wright, 41, suffered a broken right arm.

WOLVES AT CHURCH

ROME—Morning services continued far into the night in the church of San Vito on the slopes of Vesuvius when a pack of howling wolves surrounded the church at noon. Villagers, finally noticing the plight of the congregation, drove the wolves away with guns. The presence of these beasts in Vesuvius is rare.

GIRL SHOT

CLEVELAND — Lena Peritore, 12, is in a hospital with a bullet wound in her shoulder. She was shot in a quarrel between her family and a neighbor's family following a booze raid.

WORLD'S LARGEST BIRD SHOWN IN PLASTER CAST

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—A plaster cast reproduction of the largest bird ever known to have existed, has been unveiled at the Los Angeles museum. Its scientific title is Archaeopteryx lithographica, the name honoring Dr. John C. Merriam, president of the Carnegie Institution, who was instrumental in its discovery at the Rancho La Brea pits near here. From these pits have come many fossil bones of birds and beasts of the pleistocene period. Authorities on ornithology place the age of the bones of this bird at 25,000 years. The Archaeopteryx's nearest living relative is the California condor, but few of these remain today.

HIT PLUME SMUGGLING
MONTREAL—Royal Canadian Mounted Police have broken up a Canadian-American feather smuggling ring that has been operating in Montreal, along the border and in New York City for three years. The ring was shattered thru the arrest of Josef Schluski of New York and seizure of parafish plumes valued at $10,000.

First Signs of Age!

FAT

Says French Beauty Specialist HOW TO BE SLENDER AND HEALTHY

"Among the hundreds of women I treat," says Madame Kugelmann, well known beauty specialist of Paris and New York, "90% of them could take off 10 years from their appearance by reducing most of them are good-looking and young, and could be very attractive if they had not changed their middle-aged matronly looking women."

"Some women do not realize that even a slight double chin is a sign of age. They are trying to make themselves believe that their large hips and heavy eyes and nose critical call it UGLY."

BOLLS OF FAT—I know just how you people feel. I once myself weighed over 150 pounds and although only a young woman looked like 40. For years I tried everything to reduce without success—starved myself to death, walked and exercised only to find my weight increasing—I was in a most desperate mood when my physician advised me to try SANGRINA, the discovery of a French scientist. I used it 3 weeks and lost 50 pounds—I have never regained weight and my health is splendid.

I have advised SANGRINA to every fat man and woman I could reach and have known them to obtain most astonishing results—SANGRINA is a small tablet to be taken three times a day. It does not contain any harmful drugs and reduces you even though everything else has failed. It is the easiest, safest and most up-to-date way to be slender and healthy. SANGRINA is endorsed by physicians, nurses, clinics, etc., etc., and all reliable and leading drug stores sell it. SANGRINA is sold on a guarantee of satisfaction or money refunded.

PASSPORT FRAUD RING SOUGHT

U. S. Consular Officers Warn Against Fake Papers

PARIS.—(By Associated Press)—Since the new American immigration law went into effect, Europe has seen an outbreak of attempted passport frauds. So great has been the desire to reach the shores of the United States, on the part of would-be emigrants, that they are easy prey for unscrupulous traffickers in false documents. American consular officers are engaged in running down frauds in Warsaw, Berlin, Hamburg, Brussels and Paris.

A favorite but futile device among Italians has been the "Argentine dodge." The quota from this country, into America, is far from being exhausted. Armed with a faked Argentine passport, and a faked birth certificate, purchased from swindlers at a cost of $250, many an Italian has seen his hopes fade rapidly under the expert scrutiny of American consular officers.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

I have been married 15 years and we have been happy in every way until the past three months. A short time ago I was called to town and my husband staid with his mother while I was away. She liked me and has always tried to turn him against me. My husband and I have always been devoted to one another and very affectionate but when I returned from this trip, I found him a different man. He is distant and cool toward me. He says he loves me but I am almost crazy from his coolness. Do you think that I should act the same way toward him or what would you advise me to do?

Don't make the mistake of being too affectionate as long as your husband treats you coolly. If you cannot work out a satisfactory way of living along this line, ask him frankly whether he has ceased to love you. If he has, you might as well know it now. If he hasn't, certainly he can give you some reason for his change of attitude.

John Barrymore Stars in Screen Version of Fitch Play

ONE of the greatest announcements yet made to film patrons of this city is the engagement of "Beau Brummel" at the Lyric theatre next Sunday. Want gives curiosity and expectations a spur is the fact that John Barrymore, America's greatest dramatic actor, has the starring part, and that the screen version is from the Clyde Fitch play, immortalized by Richard Mansfield.

Barrymore is always Barrymore, which means that he can be depended on to give his audience unflinching dramatic entertainment. But Barrymore in the adaptation of a play that is one of the best in this country means something spectacular and unique.

THE NEW STUDEBAKER CARS FINALLY ARRIVED AT THE SHOWROOM, 406 W. MARKET.

Strange — When All New York Agrees:

In New York the critics like to be "clever." Many of them like to think they do not like motion pictures. They have never before agreed as they have on "THE SEA HAWK."

For instance, the New York American says: "If I had not taken the pledge and promised myself not to use slang, I would call 'THE SEA HAWK' a 'wow.' I really hate to use an expression so common and vulgar, but my Webster's contains no word that comes so near taking the world what I think of the new First National Picture."

The Evening World: "Seldom have we seen such a satisfactory picture. It does not sacrifice one whit of the story or action to drag in scenes that are beautiful but meaningless. But do not take this to mean that there is no beautiful photography—for there is. It looks to us as though 'THE SEA HAWK' would be a feature at the Astor for many, many weeks. It sure deserves to be."

NEXT TURN TO THE CHICAGO NEWSPAPERS:
In Chicago we have the same agreement—the same resort by the critics to their strongest terms.

Mae Tinee in the Chicago Tribune: "THE SEA HAWK" is more than just a motion picture. It is the dream of the tired business man. It is the fiery secret of romantic youth. It carries the wistful passion that, carefully concealed, lives in most of us. I want you to experience every thrill I did. And, oh boy, the thrills are there!"

Rob Reel in the Chicago American: "No collection of words is capable of doing entire justice to a production of the beauty and the complete finish displayed in 'THE SEA HAWK.' THE SEA HAWK" is rugged enough for man's taste, tender enough for a woman's and is one that young people will be crazy about."

Virginia Dale in the Chicago Journal: "A red and glorious spectacle has taken over the screen at the Roosevelt. Here is a bold, fine picture, telling its colorful tale. 'THE SEA HAWK' is the largest and most comprehensive canvass of any screen spectacle so far. It is big in the sense that it encompasses effect and does not eclipse the story. The Sabatini natural color has transplanted well to its film margins." Of course—it's coming to The Sigma.

ROOSEVELT IN AFRICA

by W. Robert Foran

INTRODUCTION

Robert Foran to see the matter where it belongs. Roosevelt scribbled that note to Robert Foran, and it was one day in March, 1909, that Roosevelt's journey in Africa, one to know the famous hunter intimately, began. Foran accompanied Roosevelt on the "Humboldt" in 1909. Foran accompanied Roosevelt on the "Humboldt" in 1909. Foran accompanied Roosevelt on the "Humboldt" in 1909.

had been hard at work since daylight superintending the loading of the luggage for the party.

In addition to the personnel of the Roosevelt expedition the train was to carry as far as Nairobi the acting governor, Sir Frederick J. Jackson, Lady Jackson, other government and railway officials, and the newspaper men.

There had never been any secret that Colonel Roosevelt strongly, and I think justifiably, objected to newspaper men following him to or into Africa. He had been kind enough to waive his personal objection in so far as I was personally concerned; but he made it clear to other correspondents who had traveled with him from Naples to Mombasa that when we reached Africa the bars would not be lifted.

"You can go to Africa, of course," he had told us. "I can't prevent that, nor do I wish to do so. But I have every right to insist that my privacy in the hunting camps must be respected. I have not the slightest objection to any of you making your headquarters at points on the railroad, but you must not follow me on my hunting expeditions."

Personally, I think we all realized that his wishes in this respect were reasonable and that they should be respected honorably. He had promised to let us have such news of his shooting luck as would be worth newscables; but, quite naturally, he was bound to protect the terms of his contract with Messrs. Charles Scribner and Sons for his book on "Africa Game Trails."

So far none of us had the slightest foundation for complaint about his fair treatment of us. He had been frankness itself, and moreover, he had even gone out of his way to remove obstacles from our paths.

CHAPTER II

"Goodbye, Teddy Roosevelt—and Good Hunting!"

Colonel Roosevelt and Kermit, as well as the three scientific members of the expedition—Major Edgar A. Mearns (U. S. A. retired), Edmund Heller and J. Allen Loring—were dressed in serviceable-looking khaki hunting clothes and sun-helmets.

R. J. Cunningham, the manager and professional guide of the expedition, had come down to Mombasa to meet the party and to help them entrain their large quantities of stores and baggage. He was going to travel with the special train to Kapiti Plains, and civilian notables of the island had greeted him with loud and prolonged cheers. There could be no mistaking the genuine warmth and earnest cordiality of that first greeting to British East Africa.

Next day at noon, we were to start forth on most wonderful railroad in the world through nature's zoo. Our journey would not end until we reached the first camp of the Roosevelt expedition on the game-crowded Kapiti Plains—285 miles from the coast.

Sensational Sale of New Antiseptic Breaking Record

A Discovery Of Vast Benefit To Humanity

Thousands Using It Give It Unstinted Praise

Another Public Letter To Hunter's Drug Store and Green's Public Drug Store Who Have Already Sold Hundreds Of Bottles

Now that you have had such a wonderful sale of Kojene these last few weeks why not again tell your friends and customers what a wonderful discovery it is?

By so doing, you can help many ailing ones and prevent hundreds of others from becoming ill.

Science continues to progress and now it has given us Kojene, the new and only antiseptic known that is neither poisonous, alcoholic, irritant or caustic.

And this not poisonous antiseptic, so harmless that you can drink it, is four times as powerful as Carbolic Acid.

Yes, and more powerful than Bichloride or Mercury.

Let's go a little further with this new antiseptic that physicians, surgeons and dentists are talking about.

Please tell your customers that it is seventy-five times more powerful as a destroyer of germs than most of the popular flavored antiseptics and mouth washes now in use.

Go further and tell them that it is so powerful that one single teaspoonful will make a whole tumblerful of the most effective and pleasant mouth wash money can buy.

A sixty cent bottle will make one-half gallon—yes! one-half gallon of a better mouth wash than the high priced, ready to use kind.

And while you are talking about the world's most wonderful antiseptic—Kojene—tell them about a few of the many things it has the power to relieve.

Sore throat and Tonsillitis will disappear overnight. In a week chronic nasal Catarrh will be a thing of the past. Old sores, ulcers, boils, carbuncles and blemished skin will clear up like magic.

Eczema and that itching skin that drives one almost mad—two days treatment is enough.

And that's all—except that women who believe in cleanliness will be glad to know that Kojene will do anything that any other antiseptic will do and do it better.

And it is not poisonous.

Another thing—Kojene has only the most healthful effect on delicate membranes which cannot be said of harsh, poisonous germ killing agents.

A six ounce bottle for 60 cents—and we almost forgot to say that you can give any purchaser the sixty cents back if he or she is not delighted with Kojene.

THE TANGLE

An Intimate Story of Innumerable Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

"I won't have you talking to that fellow!" exclaimed Jack. I shook my head at him. "What's the matter?" said Karl. "Your voice does not sound at all like you."

"There is nothing the matter except that Jack just got in last evening and brought little Jack, and I guess my nerves went back on me, for I fainted, but I'm all right now. When you first called up, Jackson seemed to think I was not well enough to answer the phone, but when I knew it was you I insisted upon taking your message myself."

"You got my letter, did you?" "Yes, dear."

There was a smothered exclamation from my husband behind my back.

It was a very splendid letter, very brave, very self-sacrificing. I haven't had time to show it to Jack, but I'm going to.

"Will you tell him that if he wants to see me, or even if he wants to see Alice, I shall insist upon her making an explanation to him. Of course, you must remember that Alice is still very unsettled and nervous. She must have some kind of excitement all the time, then again she is very melancholy. I am not sure that I will not have to take her out of the country. Poor child, I do not know what she would do if it were not for me, as she has seemed to take a sudden fear that her mother and father do not love her any more, and of course she says that you will never care for her again. I called you up to ask if you would not write her a little note and let her know you have forgiven her?"

"I think it would be better, Karl, if you would insist upon Alice coming home. If she gets over the morbid fear of meeting us and knows that we still love her, I think everything will be all right. Why don't you try to get her here while Jack is with us, and we'll have a kind of family reunion?"

"He'll have to come pretty suddenly," Jack interrupted. "My business won't let me stay away more than a day. I'm going back not later than tomorrow night."

I was in a quandary. Ruth I didn't know how to flush my conversation with Karl with Jack standing there. I didn't want him to know that my husband was still angry with me, and I knew that Karl would want me to make some explanation.

Karl happily said "Here comes Alice. I do not think we would better talk any more. She has become very suspicious of everything I do."

"Goodbye, then. I'll answer your letter tomorrow."

"I'll say you won't," again came the ugly voice behind me. Ringing off with a jerk I turned and faced my husband. "I'll say I will. I'm tired of your sudden tempers, John. I am going to be a free born white woman from now on."

"Then I think I would better say goodbye and return," came in cold, cutting accents.

"You can do quite as you please. I have made all the concessions possible."

WHY THEY PARTED

"I was down with pain in my right side which at times almost crazed me. Most all of the doctors said operation. But what I want to tell you is the pain disappeared with the first dose of your medicine and I never see any more. May's Wonderful Remedy has the right name—gas, sour stomach and dyspepsia have left, too." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Hunter's Drug Stores and druggists everywhere. adv possible." Fate intervened, however. Mother came in and said to Jack "Jack, your father wants to see you."

Without a look backward, he strode away.

THE BARNES-PADEN COMPANY

by the Barnes-Paden company. The musical play is easily on a par with other offerings of the company during its stay here. The plot of the production is woven around the escapades of the bobbed haired bandit who created such a furore in New York City some months ago. A very interesting story has been written and tuneful music has been arranged to accompany it.

Curley Burns appeared for the first time here in a character that did not require the use of burnt cork. He proved himself to be just as funny as when giving his blackface characterizations. Miss Gertrude Lowery as the woman bandit gave a pleasing performance as did other members of the company.

This company will present "The Bobbed Haired Bandit" thru the Saturday performances and will then close their stay here. They leave for Pennsylvania cities and later plan to return to Michigan, playing in a number of the larger cities of that state.

Opportunity to book the Mc-Gregor Company Inc. production "Jim Jam Jems" has caused a change in the booking for next week. The Wintergarden Revue, which was scheduled to appear here, will be seen later in the season.

"Jim Jam Jems" will be seen for one week only as it is to play the Park theatre in Youngstown the following week. It comes to the city highly recommended and will present two high class script plays. The usual special nights will be observed.

An Opportunity Night or Amateur contest is to be staged at the New Orpheum Friday night of this week. Curley Burns will be in charge.

Seat Sale Good

Proof that Mitzi has not lost any of her popularity thru her absence from Lima during the past several years is attested in the sale of tickets for her one performance at the Paurot Opera House Sept. 15.

day and it is believed that a "all house will greet the star Monday night.

Mitzi is appearing this year in "The Magic Ring," a musical play that is said to fit her better than any of her more recent vehicles. It was written especially for her and has been very well received in the larger cities of the east. She is now on her way to Chicago where the production will open Sept. 21.

The charming star is surrounded by a competent cast of players, several of whom have been seen with her in previous offerings.

Every opportunity has been offered Mitzi to display her many talents and it is said Henry W. Savage has been very successful in his attempts to please her many friends.

On and after this date I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by anyone other than myself.

FIRPO GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT BEFORE MASTER BOXER

PANTHER TAMES THE BULL

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — The Panther has tamed the Wild Bull in the battle for supremacy among the ring's jungle men.

This was the conviction that close to 80,000 spectators carried away with them last night after Harry Wills had battered and beaten Luis Firpo into complete submission in a 12 round bout that surprised the entire gathering by going the limit.

With the shade of conflict had lifted from Boxer's Thirty Acres scene of many by force time, Wills stood out as the conqueror by a margin so decisive that it left no room for debate.

Wills' Firpo's mighty right was reduced to impotence by a traffic, which did not give the Argentine down for a count of four in the second round and whipped him thrice in the other eleven with a slashing, mauling, merciless battery of thrusts to head and body.

Wills won by a one-sided margin. He fought a cool, carefully planned battle. In superb condition and employing all his assets of speed and ring skill, the big negro blocked the most furious of Firpo's rushes and at the same time delivered an attack at close range that steadily beat down even the staunch courage and endurance of the massive South American.

A year ago, almost to a day, Firpo went down in the second round of the most melodramatic fight of history after a savage, jangling battle with Jack Dempsey in which the finer arts of ring craft were tossed to the winds. Last night the Argentine went down to defeat before a more powerful and skillful.

FAILS TO SURVIVE TEST
Thus this meteoric South American, among the most colorful ring figures of all time, has failed to survive the test, either with brute force or skill. And unless his gallant fighting spirit carries him to an unexpected comeback, Firpo's title star so far as his hopes are concerned, appears to have set.

Wills, on the other hand, in brushing aside his foremost rival, has stepped back into the position of logical contender for the title worn by Dempsey. Off and on he has held this distinction for the past three years, challenging the holder with patience but unflinching persistence. It is no new thing for him and there is now no reason to believe he will not be able to fulfill his hope of battle with the champion for at least a year.

But convincing as was Wills' triumph over Firpo, and its proof that he had come back to remarkable fighting condition, his performance did not, in the opinion of most critics, brighten whatever prospect he has of dethroning Dempsey.

WILLS SHOWS RING CRAFT
Wills showed all the ring craft, speed and skill which has lifted him close to the top of the heavyweight heap. Firpo, crude as he is, looked cruder by comparison but in the final analysis the fact remained that Wills did not have the power behind his punches to sound Firpo down for the final count.

The negro flayed Firpo with every blow in the fist category—sharp jolts to the ribs and kidneys, rapier-like thrusts to the jaw, sweeping rights to the head and body and short left uppercuts that stung. It was a straight right to the chin that sent Firpo sprawling to his back in the second round, but the Argentine was on the verge of a complete knockout. Wills could not successfully follow up his advantage.

That outstanding blow was decried under unusual circumstances. It came as they were breaking from a clinch and with Firpo's head down, unsuspecting Wills, seeing his sudden opening, shot over his right. It landed squarely and with full force. But Firpo was quick on one knee and back into the fray.

STAGGERS FIRPO
Wills staggered Firpo on several other occasions, but he was slow to follow up his advantages. The negro seemed to sense—as did the crowd—that there was dominant dynamite in Firpo's right hand. He ducked and blew out of the way of the Argentine's wild swings and adopted many of the others'. Firpo seldom had an opening and usually it was quick to be closed by Wills' defense.

Several times in sporadic rallies, Firpo connected with his right swing. But none landed with the force of the drive that sent Dempsey flying out of the ring a year ago and none had any devastating effect upon the negro who at the final bell was unmarked.

During the bout Firpo frequently complained of Wills' holding on tactics on the breaks, asserting that he was being choked. He was, and admitted many of the others'. Firpo seldom had an opening and usually it was quick to be closed by Wills' defense.

No definite figures on the receipts were available early today. Richard placed the amount at $80,000 which sets a high mark in financial returns for a non-championship bout. Of this amount, Firpo will receive more, in spite of the fact that Wills is the favorite. The bout was underwritten by a syndicate of clubs in $250,000.

NO MORE FIGHTS
Wills' fight with Firpo was the last of his career. He will be 35 years old on Sept. 13. He has fought 100 bouts, winning 75, losing 25, and drawing 10. He is a former world champion and has fought the likes of Jack Dempsey, Gene Tunney, and others. He is a former world champion and has fought the likes of Jack Dempsey, Gene Tunney, and others.

Buenos Aires Stunned At Bad News

Buenos Aires—(By United Press)—Buenos Aires was stunned by the fall of its ring idol before the gorilla-like arm of Harry Wills in Jersey City last night. A huge crowd, estimated as high as 100,000 which had gathered in front of newspaper offices to read the returns on the bout melted silently away as word was flashed over the cables that Wills had beaten Luis Firpo by a wide margin.

The Argentine had been all set for a Firpo victory by a knockout and it was hard for the thousands who stood in a drizzling rain for hours to realize that their hero had been hopelessly outclassed.

There was some bitterness at what newspapers here have termed "the legal persecution" of the wild bull writer, calling attention to the morose temperament of the fighter and the depression which naturally would follow the title he had with the process servers.

On the whole, however, the newspapers and the population generally were inclined to give Wills his dues and get some satisfaction from the fact that Firpo was not knocked out. Associates of Firpo here hoped for a return bout under more favorable conditions.

"It would be foolishness to believe Firpo has lost his punch," said La Razon, big afternoon newspaper, which spent thousands of dollars getting the returns of the fight by urgent cable.

Apparently Luis was off form last night, but he still is one of the greatest heavyweights of the world.

Delphos Will Play Lima Sunday

Instead of Lima playing Angola Sunday a shift has been made in the schedule which was absolutely necessary, and Delphos will play here instead of the Hoosiers. But it will not be the usual Delphos team, and with the changes Manager Hussman has made the hope is to the effect that Lima will have a hard game to win, even if they win at all. The Delphos team will have Al Jacobs, pitching star of the Rockford, Ill. team on the mound and the hole at third base will be securely plugged by Sandquest, who shows such a splendid record this season in the Michigan-Ontario league, both in the field and with the bat. Delphos played a most interesting game against Lima the last time they were here and with these additions, it is going to be some ball game. In looking over the Delphos team Renlinger, home run slugger of the Ohio-Indiana league should not be forgotten. He lammed one over the fence the last time here.

LIMA STRENGTHENING
Manager Halloran has been fortunate in signing "Bustern" Schaefer for the remainder of the season. He leads the heavy hitters of the Three-Eye league this season with a grand percentage of .379. He will play right field Sunday, and will put the punch in the team that it suffered when Egan was forced to quit playing ball. Aside from Schaefer, Lindacker, who played such a fine game with Lima at Angola last Sunday will be in short field. He is another player who covers a world of ground and is very handy with the bat. With these two players, the team will be stronger than at any time during the present season.

There is every reason to believe that this game between these two old rivals for supremacy in the grand old game will be of sufficient high calibre to please even the fellow who knows all there is to know about baseball.

Industrials End Season

The Industrial League will close its season definitely with the game scheduled between the Police and B. & O. teams, which will be fought out at Murphy-st grounds Saturday afternoon. This is a postponed game from July 5. Both teams have been playing fine ball. The Police having won the proud earth up with the champions of the baton from Dayton, last Sunday afternoon. The game will be called at 2 o'clock. It should be a game well worth seeing.

NABHOLTZ LEAVES TO PLAY IN PRO TOURNEY

Larry Nabholtz, professional at the Shawnee Country club left Friday for French Lick to prepare for the national tournament of professional golfers which will start Monday. Larry intends to play several practice rounds over the course Saturday and Sunday and be in top form when the meet opens. He played 18 holes Thursday with Clair Dean and was going good.

On Monday the 64 entrants will each play 18 holes. From these 32 will be chosen and drawings will be held to match them up for the regular tournament. Eighteen holes will constitute a game except in the finals and semi-finals when 36 holes will be played.

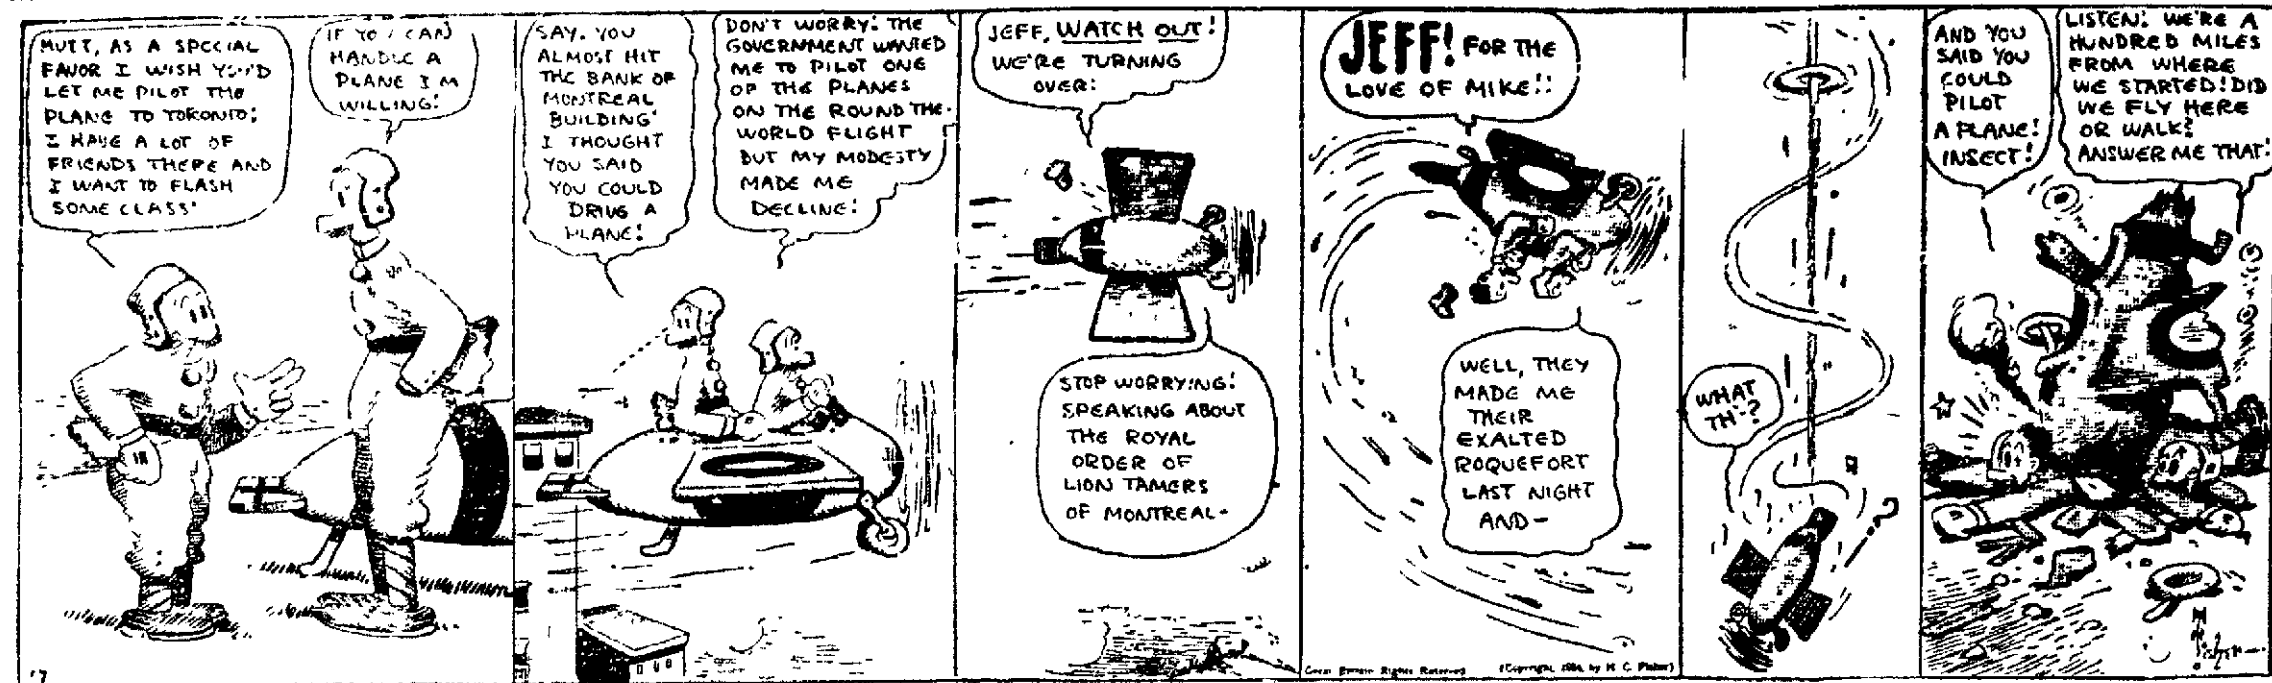

While Sarazen has won the championship for the past two years, the first time from Emmett French of Youngstown and the second from Walter Hagen, Nabholtz is of the opinion that Hagen will be the winner this year.

Larry believes if he can pass the qualifying round he will stand a good chance of ranking high among the leading professional golfers of the country.
